

COALITION OF LABOR UNION WOMEN

United Association for Labor Education (UALE) Women's Schools

Scholarship Application

The Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW) is America's only national organization for union women. Formed in 1974, CLUW is a nonpartisan organization within the union movement.

The primary mission of CLUW is to unify all union women in a viable organization to determine our common problems and concerns and to develop action programs within the framework of our unions to deal effectively with our objectives.

At its founding convention in Chicago, Illinois, CLUW adopted four basic goals of action: to promote affirmative action in the workplace; to strengthen the role of women in unions; to organize the unorganized women; and to increase the involvement of women in the political and legislative process.

These goals continue to be the cornerstone of CLUW's activities as members speak out for equal pay, child and elder care benefits, job security, safe workplaces, affordable health care, contraceptive equity, and protection from sexual harassment and violence at work.

Every year, the United Association for Labor Education (UALE) sponsors 4 regional "women's schools". These residential programs typically last between 4 and 5 days, and include classes and workshops on a variety of union-related topics. Women from all over the country learn the skills and knowledge needed to play leadership roles in their unions. Activists from unions in other countries frequently participate. One of the most valuable aspects of the schools is the chance to meet and network with other union women from around the region and beyond. This year women's schools will be held as follows:

- Midwest School for Women Workers – July 24-28, 2016, Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois.
- Northeast Summer School for Women in Unions and Worker Organizations – July 30-August 3, 2016, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey.
- Southern School for Union Women – July 27-30, 2016, Florida International University, Miami.
- Western Regional Summer Institute on Union Women – August 9-13, 2016, UCLA, Los Angeles.

For more information on the schools and associated fees, visit CLUW (www.cluw.org) or UALE's (www.uale.org) websites.

CLUW will provide one (1) $500 scholarship to each of the schools to help defray the costs of a participant to attend. Applicants must be a CLUW member or make membership application at the time they apply. The completed application form (reverse side or online at www.cluw.org) should be returned to: CLUW, ATTN: Women's Schools, 815 16th Street, N.W., 2nd Floor,

Washington, DC 20006. You may also e-mail the completed form to: cluw@cluw.org or send it via fax (717-564-7491). Return no later than Friday, June 3, 2016.
