Greetings,

It is with great pleasure that we issue the Official Call for the 22nd Biennial Convention of the Coalition of Labor Union Women, on November 10-12, 2023, at the Minneapolis Hilton. Our theme is "Hear Us Roar: Getting Ready for 2024!" CLUW's National Executive Board will be meeting in person on November 9th (9 a.m.-3 p.m. CST) directly before the convention. Registration fees and hotel costs will be posted on the CLUW website and will be sent out to all members in good standing.

Only delegates to the convention will be acting on the business of the convention that will set the future direction for CLUW. Delegates must be a CLUW member in good standing by September 26, 2023.

There will be an observer section in the convention hall. There will also be activities outside of the business session of the convention for everyone who has registered as a delegate or observer.

The women's movement and the labor movement are facing some of the biggest challenges in our history, with battles on every front. This is our opportunity to engage those in the labor movement, our community allies and those in the women's movement to form strong coalitions and fight back against those forces that are trying to diminish our power and eliminate gains we have struggled to achieve.

This convention is about working together to set new goals and frame our objectives from the founding principles that guide the work of our organization. Progress is made possible by networking, sharing information and developing ideas to form new programs and policies.

Please note that observers are welcome to attend the convention and fully participate in all activities. However, they will be required to pay the appropriate registration fee and will be seated in a special section in the convention hall as they will not be able to have a voice or vote.

We hope you will enjoy this exciting convention that will cover a variety of topics, featuring dynamic speakers and sessions to inspire & empower delegates & guests.

In Solidarity,

Janet Hill
CLUW Corresponding Secretary
